La Alcaidesa

Atria is a new development of 144 apartments with two and three bedrooms in La Alcaidesa, in the province of Cádiz at the western end of the Costa del Sol. It is being built in two phases in quiet, green residential surroundings, with generous terraces that extend the home outdoors. The communal facilities are extensive: a swimming pool set among the gardens, a gym with spa, an outdoor meditation area, a coworking room with a community room and a children's play area. The development carries energy rating A for both consumption and emissions, with mechanical ventilation, efficient climate control and good insulation. Construction has started and a show home can be visited. A parking space and a storage room are included in the price.
